

Open Jerusalem: Survey Updates

Merav Mack, CRFJ, 7 May 2014

Open-Jerusalem Project

The American Colony Hotel

The American Colony and Open Jerusalem:

- 33 photo albums: Each album contains 400 photos, sorted and edited by Eric Metson and include captures in his hand writing (his own complementing collection of 24,000 negatives was donated to the American Congress Library and is available online)
  - Locusts Albums (epidemics of 1915 and 1930; more albums might exist in Istanbul or in private collections);

1937 Earth Quake:

Israel Antiquity Authority

- Ample material is now available online (although the search facilities are very limited):

<http://www.iaa-archives.org.il/>

The Albright Institute (formerly the American School of Oriental

Personal papers of orientalists and archaeologists (Morris Jastrow, Edmund I. Gordon and Douglas
E. Esse)

150 Map titles

960 archival boxes – but mainly excavation reports.

Most important: a survey carried out by the institute: <http://www.dlir.org>

Digital Library for International Research (DLIR) >