

UNIVERSITÉ
PARIS-EST
MARNE-LA-VALLÉE

Liban لبنان
T. palestiniens
Syrie سورية
الأردن Jordanie
العراق Irak

European Research Council

UNIVERSITÉ PARIS-EST / MARNE-LA-VALLÉE
ERC FUNDED PROJECT – OPENING JERUSALEM’S ARCHIVES :
FOR A CONNECTED HISTORY OF ‘CITADINITÉ’ IN THE HOLY CITY (1840-1940)

Programme for round-table workshop

“New Perspectives for Jerusalem’s Late Ottoman and Mandate Social History: Sources and Resources in Jordan”

Monday the 24th of November from 9:30 am to 1:30 pm
at the Institut français du Proche-Orient (IFPO) in Amman

9:30 am

Word of welcome by Vanessa Guéno

Opening remarks by Falestin Naili and Vincent Lemire

9:45 am

“Jerusalem, Amman, Beirut and beyond: moving from the Jerusalem municipal archives to the collective memory of Ottoman Jerusalem in search of citadinité (urban citizenship)”

Falestin Naili

10:15 am

“Jerusalem Municipal Archives and Istanbul Imperial Archives: how to interconnect the two levels”

Yasemin Avci

10:45 am

“The Hebrew newspaper Ha-Zvi: a mirror of Jerusalem’s public affairs at the turn of the century”

Abdul-Hameed Al Kayyali

11:15 – 11:40 Coffee break

11:45 am

“Water and its Sources in Jerusalem in the Ottoman period”

Nufan Al Sawariah

12:15 pm

“Jerusalem’s court registers as a source for social history”

Abla Muhtadi

12:45 pm

Synthesis and closing remarks

Mohammed Adnan Al Bakhit